Sub: Renewal of accreditation

Dear Sir,

This has reference to the Re- Assessment of your laboratory conducted during December'14 for Electrical Testing and final assessment for Electronics and Photometry testing. I would like to inform you that the case was evaluated and found complying with NABL norms.

I am pleased to inform you that the accreditation of your laboratory is renewed in Electrical testing as per the scope recommended by assessment team. The Authorized signatories are also approved as recommended by the assessment team.

However, decision of accreditation for Electronics and Photometry is subject to satisfactory submission of following:

- The results for ILC participation for parameters of Electronics & Photometry testing with sufficient no of laboratories.
- Training evaluation records of testing engineers of Electronics testing against the NC # SK-5.

You can claim NABL Accreditation for the recommended scope in Electrical testing with certificate No. T-1811, w.e.f. from 06.05.15 with validity till 05.05.17. Your laboratory is eligible to use NABL symbol on testing reports issued by you as per guidelines given in NABL 133.

Apart from above, being an accredited laboratory of NABL you must fulfill all the Terms and Conditions laid down in our document NABL-131 and agreed by you.

Regards

Dheeraj Chawla
Accreditation Officer
